The musical score is written for a DJ version of the song '把酒倒满'. It features a series of staves, each beginning with a letter (C, D, E, F) in a box. The staves contain musical notation including eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and various symbols like 'x' and 'z'. Measure numbers are provided at the start of each staff. Some staves have a '4' above them, indicating a 4-measure phrase. The score ends with a double bar line and a fermata.
